CAST TABLE

CAST TABLE product sheet

The CAST table has a versatile base system that can be used with a tabletop of any shape and size. Possible tops are round, oval, rectangular or square, some available with extensions. Due to an easy personalization of the table, it is ideal for a wide range of uses in a home or office environment. It optionally offers useful features such as a cable storage solution for an exquisite office meeting table.

On request it is possible to customize this product regarding materials, dimensions or other. Please feel free to ask us any questions you see relevant.
